

IBT wins System Integrator of the Year Award

Dubai, UAE – 05 December 2013: IBT, the leading Information & Communication Technology (ICT) solution provider and system integrator in the Middle East region today announced that it has been awarded the prestigious ‘Systems Integrator of the Year Award’ for the year 2013.

The System Integrator of the Year award recognizes IBT for its excellence and innovative vendor agnostic approach to Systems Integration apart from dedication to quality and service while implementing several major projects in UAE and other part of Middle East.

Mr. Jai Mulani, C.E.O. at IBT, said, “We are glad to be recognized by an independent industry platform for our efforts. And this award is a result of hard work by our team, our vendors and our customers. The System Integrator of the Year award 2013 also re-enforces our position as the region’s leading systems integrator on account of our technical and support capabilities. We constantly strive to exceed our customers’ expectations in terms of performance, reliability and cost of ownership”.
